Foreign Exchange Dealers May Be Those interested in the business o nounced yesterday by Fred I. Kent, director of the Division of Foreign Exchange, as follows:

"Bankers, merchants, manufacturers exporters and importers and all others carrying accounts with or for foreign correspondents, either in account cur-rent or securities, who have not made rent or securities, who have not made application for registration certificates by March 1s, as required by Executive order of the President, will be prohibited from continuing transactions covered by the order. Due to the difficulty in obtaining satisfactory and extended publicity the Federal Reserve Board has authorized Federal reserve banks to continue to take applications for registration certificates beyond the date originally set, but it is now felt that sufficient time has elapsed to enable all concerned to familiarize themselves with the requirements of no foreign exchange operations covered by the Executive order can be carried on after March 18, 1918, unless a registration certificate shall have been applied for on or before that date.
